

Date: November 1, 2008

Publication: Reno Gazette Journal

Page(s): 4C

Featured Attorneys: N/A

Stand up for Students event celebrates merged Alliance

All of the companies and individuals who contributed to the "Stand Up for Students" event that celebrated the merger of the Education Collaborative and the Education Foundation into the Education Alliance of Washoe County, including: the Fred Altmann family; Ross Barker, kidsandclassrooms.com; Dick and Nancy Bostdorff; Reno Mayor Bob Cashell and his wife; Circus Circus; Perry DiLoreto; the Glenn Group; IGT; Michael and Ginny Jackson; Jones Vargas; KRNV News 4; Nevadaworks; Peppermill; Jim and Gail Pfrommer; Chancellor James Rogers, Nevada System of Higher Education; State Sen. Bill Raggio; Reno High School jazz band; Reno-Tahoe Airport Authority; Renown Health; Silver Legacy; Assemblywoman Debbie Smith; State Sen. Randolph Townsend; Truckee Meadows Community College; University of Nevada, Reno; Washoe County School District; Washoe Education Foundation; Wells Fargo; and Yamana Gold.

The event featured the well-known musical-comedy group the Capitol Steps and a performance by the RHS jazz band.

HANDOUT

The Reno High School Jazz Band performing at Stand Up For Students event in 2008. The event celebrated the merger of the Education Collaborative and Education Foundation into the Education Alliance of Washoe County.