JONES VARGAS WELCOMES LAW STUDENTS TO LAS VEGAS OFFICE

Students Selected for Summer Clerkship

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (July 28, 2008) – Jones Vargas, one of Nevada’s most prestigious law firms, welcomes its newest staff of summer clerks to the Las Vegas office. Candidates chosen to participate in the summer program are typically second-year law students, and work full-time for the summer on client-billable, clerk-level projects. The following law students were selected for the 2008 Jones Vargas summer program – Las Vegas office: Parker Brooks, Daniel Cereghino, James Conway, Christopher Infanger and Charles Peterson.

A first year law student at Georgetown University, Brooks played professional baseball in the Dodgers organization for three years. He was born and raised in Las Vegas.

Cereghino is a law student at Fordham University School of Law who also earned a master’s degree from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

A part-time clerk for Jones Vargas during the past school year, Conway was among those selected for the full-time summer program. Conway is a second-year evening student at Boyd School of Law in Las Vegas. Raised in Las Vegas, he earned his bachelor’s degree in finance.

Infanger just completed his second year at the J. Reuben Clark Law School (BYU). He earned his bachelor’s degree in English literature from Utah Valley State College (now Utah Valley University).

Peterson is a second-year law student at Boyd School of Law in Las Vegas. He was previously a part-time employee at Jones Vargas while he was working on his bachelor’s degree in philosophy.
