JANET CHUBB, JONES VARGAS, REAPPOINTED TO NEVADA SUPREME COURT SETTLEMENT PROGRAM

RENO, Nev. (Jan. 11, 2008) – Janet Chubb, a stockholder in the Reno office of Jones Vargas, was reappointed recently to the State of Nevada Supreme Court Settlement Conference Program. Chubb joins a panel of 13 other judges in the state for her three-year term and has been included as a mediation judge for the program since 1997. The Settlement Program began in 1977 and was designed as an alternative dispute resolution system. Its goal is to help clients reach a mutually acceptable solution without going through the trial process.

“It is a great honor to be reappointed to the Supreme Court’s Settlement Program,” said Chubb. “I am very proud of the work I’ve been able to do through this program and I hope to continue the progress we’ve made over the past decade.”

In addition to her work in the Settlement Program, Chubb has been a twice-appointed and once-elected lawyer representative to the Ninth Circuit Judicial Conference. She is one of only two lawyers in Nevada to be inducted into the American College of Bankruptcy, an organization of approximately 600 bankruptcy experts worldwide. She has published in the areas of both bankruptcy and domestic relations and is listed in “The Best Lawyers in America” for her practice in bankruptcy proceedings.

Jones Vargas represents local, national and international clients in business, litigation, government relations, gaming, corporate, municipal finance, real estate, bankruptcy, estate and probate, tax, zoning, health care and domestic matters. In certain areas of practice, such as complex financing transactions and multi-state or multi-district litigation, Jones Vargas is one of the most experienced firms in Nevada. The law firm offers a full range of services to all clients, from handling everyday matters and preventive counseling to dealing with difficult, complex transactions and litigation.
